7. The Datum References Rule

The seventh rule is about the datum references and datum modifiers of the lower segment. The lower segment is really a refinement of the upper segment; therefore, any datum references must be a subset of the upper segment. Any datum references must be repeats and in the same order of the datums from the upper segment and must contain the same modifiers.