

Subject _____

* Project manager is wanting to excavate in "area of interest" to extend the PVC to CS connection away from the entrance of the sump pit. This is due to past failures of fractured PVC due to vibration. Putting the connection point outside the pit gives better access for repair.

Expected work is to install isolation valve and flange connection to make switch to CS.